DAUGHTER OF GENERAL WHEELER IS MARRIED

EIRMINGHAM, ALA., October 2—At the historic Wheeler homostead, near Wheeler Station, Lawrence county, at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Miss Parrie Peyton Wheeler, youngest daughter of the late General Joseph Wheeler, and Mr. Gordon M. Buck, of New York, were married.

Owing to the death of General Wheeler last January, the marriage was private. Mr. Buck the groom, was accompanied to Wheeler Station by a few friends from the East. The bridal party left on an eastbound train this evening, and were bit farewell at the little railroad stition by the entire population of the piace.

course a manufacturer of any old kind of imitation tobacco can buy the kind of advertising matter he sees used for the brand of tobacco he is trying to imitate. Any one with a small amount of cash can buy steel signs, or imitate the deal or manner of packing Grape Tobacco, or can rush into newspaper space. These things require only cash; but to make Grape Tobacco takes brains as well as a little cash. Imitating our methods of advertising is easy, but there is only one Grape Tobacco. They are all after it, but so far after that they can only get what business Grape does not want, or cannot fill.
